KELLY CASE TO PADUCAH

Change of Venue Ordered
After a Protracted Hearing.

BAD FEELING AROUSED.

Noted Case Transferred to Judge Reed's District by Judge Sims.

Special Judge Jas. C. Sims, yesterday granted the motion for a change of venue in the case of County Attorney John W. Kelly, charged with misappropriating trust funds in his hands as Master Commissioner of Trigg county.

The case goes to Paducah Sept. 10, at the regular term of Judge Reed's court.

Judge Sims was appointed to try the case after Judge Thos. P. Cook and Judge Robt. Crenshaw had been relieved from service as Judge in the trial. Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith declined to prosecute the case, Kelly having been his partner, and John Stites, of this city, was appointed in his stead. An order by Judge Crenshaw amounting to a dismissal of the cases, was appealed and reversed by the Court of Appeals. The trial after many delays, was called Monday and Mr. Stites filed an affidavit, sensational in the extreme, charging that Kelly could not be successfully prosecuted in Trigg county by reason of the fact that he was a member of the night rider organization. Oral testimony was then presented, and the defense also introduced a large number of witnesses to prove that the allegations were not true.

Much bitterness was engendered against Mr. Stites, and the feeling became so intense that Maj. Bassett ordered a detail of six soldiers to preserve order.

Mr. Kelley conducted his own cross-examination of witnesses and was strongly opposed to the change of venue.

In Insurance Business.

Miss Katie McDaniel has succeeded her sister, Mrs. Frank Rives, in insurance business here. Her office is in the Odd Fellows building, second floor, where she would be pleased to have her friends call. Miss McDaniel is a teacher of long experience, having taught in the Hopkinsville Public Schools for years and for two terms she was County Superintendent of schools. Recently she was a member of the faculty of the South Kentucky College.

She has a wide personal acquaintance and her universal popularity will no doubt enable her to build up a very successful business. See her card, which appears elsewhere in this issue of the Kentuckian.

Gus Brannon to Leave.

Mr. Gus H. Brannon, cashier of the Commercial and Savings Bank, returned yesterday from Birmingham, Ala. While there he accepted the position of cashier in the Citizens Savings Bank, and will enter upon his duties September 1. His successor here has been determined upon and will be announced later. Mr. Brannon's friends here will regret very much to see him leave Hopkinsville. The Birmingham position pays a handsome salary, far in excess of the one he receives here.

Radford-Bramel.

Mayfield, Ky., July 31.—Joseph E. Radford, aged 25, of Hopkinsville, Ky., and Miss Amanda Bramel, aged 25, of this city, were married here Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. Ed Geisel. The wedding was quite a surprise to the many friends of the bride.

MILITARY CAMP TO BE ESTABLISHED AT GRACEY

Latest Orders Issued by Adjutant General Johnston---
Three Permanent Camps.

Frankfort, Ky., July 32.—For the purpose of having State troops handy in the event of further attempts at destruction of property in Western Kentucky, and particularly railroad property, the State Military Department today ordered the formation of military camps at Gracey, Cobb and Cerulean Springs. Telegrams were sent to the officers in command of the troops which have been patrolling through Trigg, Caldwell and other counties which have been the center of recent disturbances to establish three camps at the points named. Formal orders were issued later by the Adjutant General, explicitly directing the method of procedure in the formation of the camps. The troops will occupy no ground without first tendering fair compensation to the owner thereof. The usual military precautions are to be taken, for it is strictly enjoined that bounds of the camp be fixed within which no civilian shall enter without leave.

It was at Gracey, Cerulean Springs and Cobb that the depots of the Illinois Central were recently burned by unknown parties at night. The setting forth of the facts in the case to Gov. Willson by Vice President Rawn, of the railroad, resulted in the latter's letter to Rawn, in which he notified him that camps for the State troops will be established wherever their duty can best be subserved.

The camp at Gracey has been established in a lot northeast of the burned depot site, owned by W. F. Cox.

AUGUST 1ST

Some Local Matters That Make To-day Important.

The city ordinance fining persons who fail to take out license for dogs in the city takes effect to-day and many arrests are expected.

The books of the Planters' Protective Association for 1908 are closed to-day and no more pledges of the growing crop can be made.

The election of school trustees under the new educational law will be held all over the State to-day. In 70 districts of Christian county one trustee will be elected. There are no contests.

August 1st the dove law will be suspended and lovers of the gun will get their first chance for sport in the field since last spring. Beginning with today they will be allowed to hunt all they desire for doves and shoot them until Jan. 1, 1909. Doves are said to be quite plentiful this season.

LARGE PARTY

From Christian Visited Mammoth Cave This Week.

About seventy-five people from this city and county visited Mammoth Cave this week. The party left here at 7:05 Thursday morning, arrived at the cave at noon. They spent one day seeing the sights and returned home last night. All report having had a most pleasant trip. A very low rate was put on from Madisonville to Rockfield for the occasion and when the latter place was passed the crowd numbered several hundred. A few who only took in the "short route," returned home Thursday night.

ATE BOLOGNA.

One Dead and Two Others
Ill.

Three children of George Pike, a farmer who resides a few miles from Kelly, ate freely of bologna sausage Thursday afternoon and were made violently ill. Before a physician could be summoned one of them died and the other children are still very sick, but it is thought that they will recover.

Failed to Heed.

Millard Collins was killed near Benhur, Va., by a shot gun mechanically arranged to shoot anyone entering John Wilson's patch. Wilson had a notice posted warning intruders that the gun has been set.

Union Services.

The Union Services will be held Sunday evening at the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

GOODWIN

Is Recovering and was Taken To Paducah Yesterday.

Walter Goodwin, who was shot at Center Furnace Sunday night by assassins in ambush, was able to be taken to Eddyville yesterday and was sent to Paducah for treatment. It is believed that he will recover. Should he die, McCracken county will have equal jurisdiction with Trigg in prosecuting his murderers. Goodwin is a witness who betrayed night rider secrets in Trigg county.

MRS. W. D. GARDNER

Died Thursday and Was Buried Yesterday.

Mrs. W. D. Gardner died at the residence of Mr. Walter Faulkner, of Cerulean, Thursday afternoon, aged 32 years. She was a sister of Mrs. Faulkner and also of Mrs. T. D. McGee, of this city. She leaves one child. The burial took place yesterday at the private graveyard of her husband's father, J. D. Gardner, at Cerulean Springs.

ELECTION

General Voting To-day In 70
Districts For School Trustees.

Under the provisions of the new educational law, one trustee will be elected today in each of the 70 School districts, who will serve for both white and black schools. Two negro candidates announced in the Iron Hill and Casky districts but it is understood they withdrew yesterday. In many districts there were no announced candidates, and blank ballots were sent out. But little interest is being taken in the election. No election will be held in this city.

TO WED IN OCTOBER.

Miss Lizzie Lou Alexander
and Mr. Charles H.
Nash, Jr.

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal of July 24th, contains the formal announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Lizzie Lou Alexander, of Middleton, Tenn., to Charles Harris Nash, Jr., of Temple,

Texas, which will take place next October. The announcement was made at an "At Home" given at Miss Alexander's home in honor of her visitor, Miss Emma Gardner, of Nashville. Miss Alexander was a teacher in the Bethel Female College for four years, resigning last June, and is quite popular in the social circles of Hopkinsville. Mr. Nash is the son of Dr. Chas. H. Nash and resided in this city for seventeen years, several years of the time as a pharmacist in R. C. Hardwick's drug store. He went to Texas about a year ago and is connected with the Temple Candy Company, a wholesale house. He is secretary and treasurer of the company and also a stockholder. The local friends of the young couple will learn with interest of their approaching wedding.

EXPIRED SUDDENLY.

Farmer Dies While Calling
On Physician.

J. H. Stokes, a farmer of Todd county, died suddenly in the office of a physician at Trenton Thursday. Angina pectoris, for which he had been receiving treatment for some time, was the cause of death. He was about fifty years old and leaves a wife and two children.
